

The following advertisement appeared in the New York Advertiser. The New York politicians are preparing for the Presidential campaign—

POLITICAL.

ELEVENTH WARD POLITICIAN, ATTENDEED.—Meetings will be held during the present week, and no longer, if necessary, at the Club House—Sixth street—to ascertain the true merits of the case.

"External vigilance is the price of liberty."

Price of gun, sixpence; 12d. glass.

F. Prentiss says there are some men who will walk up to the nation's mouth, and some women who will walk up to a man's without shrinking.

Mr. Annie Williams, a seamstress, committed suicide in Philadelphia on Monday by swallowing an ounce of laudanum, purchased with the last penny she possessed. A local paper describes her as only 23 years of age, and possessed of a fine person as the finest lady you will meet on Chestnut street. She could not obtain work to support herself.

Dr. Rex. Heber Kimball, the Mormon preacher, in one of his late discourses speaking of Horace Greeley, said—"What a fruitful imagination he must have! He is the greatest bar on the face of the earth. Why, blow your souls, he is the father of all bars. He will go to hell and be the father of bars there. Amen!" "Amen" sounded throughout the congregation.

The Philadelphia North American says—"The superintendent of the West Philadelphia Railroad exhibited to us, the other day, a horse whose hoofs the rats had gnawed until their teeth reached the quick. The rats were savagely fed on these horses, every morsel of meat being taken off, and with such a ferocious bleeding from wounds inflicted by the incisive prickers."

It is perhaps no disease which distresses the health and comforts of man more than the same disease of dyspepsia or indigestion.

Previous to the discovery of the OXYGENATED BUTTER, there existed no medicine adequate for the cure of this disease, which, however, has now been successfully remedied.

The power of these letters over the entire country is well known all over the land, having their effect in the most rapid manner.

Asma and General Debility is beyond question.

A special and permanent course of the oxygenated butter, with its various salutary effects, can be easily obtained by the following course of treatment:

COPY OF A LETTER FROM A SCHOOL-TEACHER IN BOSTON.

Dear Sirs, Boston, June 10, 1859.—After having the pleasure of your letter, I am sorry to inform you that my students are still suffering from the effects of the oxygenated butter. Since using it, however, they have greatly improved, and are now in full health. I have written to Dr. J. H. Jewett, of Johnsbury, for him to furnish me with a supply of the butter, and will do so as soon as possible.

Prepared for Dr. W. F. Davis, Boston, and sent to him by Dr. J. H. Jewett, of Johnsbury, 2, May 1859.—I have now received the butter, and will send it to you as soon as possible. It is a valuable medicine, and I hope it will be of great service to your students.

Yours very truly, W. H. Richardson & Co., Boston.
